

The red poppy flower isn't just our national icon; it's abundant in Belgium. We've discovered flowers to be powerful emotional symbols. Students are similar to flowers, each with its unique growth.

A field of poppies with buds pointing upwards symbolizes growth. Growth of the school, growth of the students, growth of the teachers and growth of a community.